

Epoxy powder coating in colour "pink".

Special RUD products are coated with a fluorescent pink powder coating (Patent).

This coating is used for example as a heat indicator: With temperature increase the pink colour changes permanently from beige into brown and turns finally when exceeding a temperature of 400° Celsius into black.

In addition to that bubbles on the surface may appear.

See page 32 for necessary WLL reduction and max. allowed temperature!

